

NT Cutter Red Dot 9mm Snap Cutter

Stainless Steel Slim Body

A1P

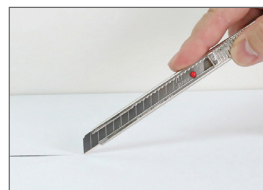

The PRO A1P NT 9mm Snap Cutter often referred to as the “Red Dot”, renowned in the window tinting and graphics industries, features a sleek stainless steel body complemented by a micro-adjusting slide with an auto-locking mechanism. The auto-lock function secures the blade in place, enhancing cutting performance, while the end cap doubles as a blade snapper. Its symmetrical design ensures that both left-handed and right-handed users can operate it effortlessly, making it a versatile tool for installers. With a high-quality sliding track that ensures smooth blade movement and 2 spare blades for added convenience this knife stands out as a reliable tool for cutting damp window film, wallpaper, and more. This precision-engineered tool is proudly manufactured in Japan, reflecting a commitment to quality and performance in the professional toolkit.
